

at the prom-ised space to grow . But their ac-tions spoke much loud-er that it real-ly was-n't so

But you have come a - mong us , come to share our pain and loss , And the grief for this de - ni - al skill keeps you on the cross . Chorus

3. I hear your voice with -in me , your love is in my heart . Seek and pray and do and list-en for you must play your part . You must help to free my gos-pel from pre-ju-dice and fear for the world still waits to know me and longs my truth to hear Chorus

(Introduction) 1. When I was con-ceived you knew me and your plans for me were laid for I am in your im-age and am won-der-ful-ly made.

They said we were all e-qual there was no op-pressed or free Jew, Gen-tile, male or fe-male that in Christ was li-ber-ty I am stand-ing at the I'm re-joic-ing

ed- ges of a world I must ex - plore

And your love is strong with - in me to lead me on some more Give me the strength and cou-rage to ac-cept both joy and pain for my sis-ters and my bro-there that we may be whole a - gain

2. I re-joiced to hear this gos-pel