3. MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

3.1 Interpretation

- (a) A provision in this Part which refers to “the Act” shall be interpreted as provided in this clause.
- (b) “Subject to the Act” shall be taken to mean subject to the provisions of the Act notwithstanding that the ACNC Legislation may cause some provisions of the Act to cease to apply to the Company by force of law.
- (c) If:
 - (i) the ACNC Legislation causes some provisions of the Act to cease to apply to the Company by force of law; and
 - (ii) reference in this Constitution is made to such provisions;
 then this Constitution will be taken to apply the relevant provisions of the Act to Company as if the ACNC Legislation had not caused the provisions to cease to apply.
- (d) This clause is intended to remove any ambiguity about the interpretation of particular aspects of this Constitution. It is not intended to give effect to any provision of the Act where its continued operation would be in direct conflict with the ACNC Legislation.

3.2 Annual general meeting

- (a) Subject to the Act, a general meeting shall be held at least once in every calendar year and within the period of five months after the end of the financial year at such time and place as may be determined by the Board. - (b) The Board may change the venue for, postpone or cancel a general meeting, provided that if the general meeting was not called by a Directors' resolution or was called in accordance with a Members' requisition under the Act, then it may not be postponed or cancelled without the prior written consent of the persons who called or requisitioned the meeting.

3.4 Notice of general meetings

- (a) A notice of meeting of Members shall specify:
 - (i) the place, the day and the time of the meeting (and, if the meeting is to be held in two or more places, the technology that will be used to facilitate this);

 - (iii) such other information as is required by section 249L of the Act.
- (b) The Company may hold a meeting of its Members at two or more venues using any technology that gives the Members as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate.
- (c) Subject to the provisions of the Act relating to agreements for shorter notice, at least 21 days' notice must be given of a meeting of Members.
- (d)
 - (i) Notice of every meeting of Members shall be given in the manner authorised by clause 5.8 to:

 - (ii) No other person is entitled to receive notices of meetings of Members.

3.5 Chair of general meetings

- (a) The President shall preside as chair at every General Meeting.
- (b) If there is no President or the President is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act for all or part of the meeting, the Members present shall elect one of their number to chair the meeting (or part of it).

3.6 Quorum for general meetings

- (a) No business shall be transacted at any meeting of Members unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business.
- (b) A quorum of Members for a meeting is 10 Members.

- (c) For the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present, a person attending as a proxy, or as representing a body corporate that is a Member, shall be deemed to be a Member.

3.7 Adjournment of general meetings

- (a) If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes from the time appointed for the meeting:
 - (i) where the meeting was convened upon the request of Members - the meeting shall be dissolved; or
 - (ii) in any other case:
 - (A) the meeting stands adjourned to such day, and at such time and place, as the Directors determine or, if no determination is made by the Directors, to the same day in the next week at the same time and place; and
 - (B) if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within 15 minutes from the time appointed for the meeting, then the meeting shall be dissolved.
- (b)
 - (i) The chair shall adjourn a meeting of Members from time to time and from place to place if the Members present with a majority of votes that may be cast at that meeting agree or direct the chair to do so. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
 - (ii) When a meeting of Members is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting.
 - (iii) Except as provided by the preceding paragraph, it is not necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

3.8 Voting at general meetings

- (a)
 - (i) At any meeting of Members a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands or by voices or such other method as the chair determines unless a poll is demanded (before a vote is taken or immediately after the declaration of the result of the show of hands) by at least two thirds of the Members present in person or by proxy.
 - (ii) Unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the chair that a resolution has on a show of hands or by voices or such other method as the chair determines, been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company, is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

- (iii) The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- (b)
- (i) If a poll is duly demanded, it shall be taken in such a manner as the chair directs and unless the meeting is adjourned, the result of the poll will be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
 - (ii) A poll demanded on the election of the chair or on a question of adjournment shall be taken immediately.
- (c) In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or by voices or such other method as the chair determines, or on a poll, the chair of the meeting of Members at which the show of hands or indication by voices or such other method of voting takes place or at which the poll is demanded will not have a casting vote in addition to any vote the chair may have in the capacity as a Member.
- (d) Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any Member:
- (i) at meetings of Members each Member entitled to vote may vote in person or by proxy or attorney or representative (except a Member may not vote by proxy at a disciplinary appeal meeting); and
 - (ii) on a show of hands or indication by voices or such other method and on a poll, every person present who is a Member or a proxy or attorney or representative of a Member has one vote, and on a poll every person present in person or by proxy or attorney or representative has one vote.
- (e) If the Membership is held jointly and more than one such joint Member votes, only the vote of the Member whose name appears first in the Register of Members counts.
- (f) If a Member is of unsound mind or is a person whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental health, his or her committee or trustee or such other person as properly has the management of his or her estate may exercise any rights of the Member in relation to a meeting of Members as if the committee, trustee or other person were the Member.
- (g) A Member is not entitled to vote at a meeting of Members unless all sums presently payable by him or her in respect of the Company have been paid.
- (h)
- (i) An objection may be raised to the qualification of a voter only at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered.

- (ii) Any such objection shall be referred to the chair of the meeting of Members, whose decision is final.
- (iii) A vote not disallowed pursuant to such an objection is valid for all purposes.

3.9 Proxies

- (a) A Member who is entitled to attend and cast a vote at a meeting of Members may appoint another Member as the Member's proxy to attend and vote for the Member at the meeting, with one exception: a Member may not appoint a proxy to speak or vote on behalf of the Member at a disciplinary appeal meeting.
- (b) An instrument appointing a proxy:
 - (i) shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his or her attorney duly authorised in writing or, if the appointor is a corporation, either under seal or executed in accordance with the Act or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorised;

 - (iii) shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll;
 - (iv) shall be in a form that is as similar to the form in schedule 1 as the circumstances allow; and
 - (v) shall not be treated as valid unless the instrument and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which the instrument is signed or a copy of that power or authority certified by a solicitor or a notary public, is or are deposited not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or, in the case of a poll, not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, at the registered office of the Company or at such other place in Australia as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting.
- (c) A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy or of a power of attorney is valid notwithstanding the previous death or unsoundness of mind of the principal, the revocation of the instrument (or of the authority under which the instrument was executed) or of the power, providing no intimation in writing of the death, unsoundness of mind or revocation was made before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the instrument is used or the power is exercised.
